CENTER FOR
PARISH VITALITY

JULY 2024

A Spirit-Filled Vision

“We, the members of the Holy Spirit Family of Parishes, will foster discipleship by making the Eucharist the center of our lives as we form, live, and share our faith.” The vision discernment began at the Family's Vision Day. Following that day, a series of meetings were held with parishioner leaders, including an ad hoc vision group that was created by the Family Leadership Team. “Our vision statement will help shape the future of our Family of Parishes by keeping our eyes, hearts, and minds focused on what we agree is the essence of our role (what we are called to do) as Catholics. That is being Eucharist-centered, as we foster discipleship,” explains Lynne Mosley, Leadership Team Head.

The vision is being brought to life through studies on the Eucharist; the statement is read every weekend at all Masses during the announcement time. It will be visible on the Family website and is recited at parish meetings; the vision is incorporated into homilies as fitting with the readings and parish groups sometimes take extended time to reflect on the statement.

“This vision statement will be successful because the entire Holy Spirit Family of Parishes membership created it.”

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Take More

It doesn't matter what time of day we visit my mother-in-law — she always has food to offer. If we take two helpings, she will encourage us to take three. If we take three helpings, she will say, "Coraggio — take more." (She's Italian, in case you couldn't tell from the food-pushing and the language.)

When Jesus feeds the five thousand with the miracle of the loaves and fish, he does not produce just enough food to feed everyone who is there. He certainly could — that would be within his power. And he shows concern about waste, so it would make sense for him to do that. But instead, he deliberately overproduces. He creates more food than is necessary. He makes an abundance of it. Why?

I think it's for the same reason my mother-in-law keeps urging us to eat when we come to her house. Feeding people is not just a functional action. It's a gesture. It shows love. It shows concern. It shows welcome. Having an abundance of food — so much that there is some left over — is a sign that you don't care how much someone wants — you are ready to give whatever they are ready to take. You are ready to give recklessly. You are ready to give them not just all they need but also all they could want.

I think of this when I approach the sacrament of Confession. Time and time again I walk up to the door of that little room, a list of oft-repeated sins in my hand and a sense of shame on my heart.

Here I am again, Jesus. Back for more mercy. Hope you haven't run out.

He hasn't yet. He never will. "Coraggio," he whispers deep in my heart, "take more."

"When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, 'This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world.'" — John 6:14

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The world is filled with people whose basic needs aren't met, whether for clean water, nutrition, safety, education, meaningful work, stable family life, basic medical resources, religious freedom, and the right to life. So how can we possibly believe what Psalm 145 says to us this week, "The hand of the Lord feeds us, he answers all our needs"? Does he? What about the countless poor? Can't we identify at least a few unmet needs in our own lives right now? Is the Bible promoting wishful thinking and laziness in helping others?

No. The psalm flows from Israel's experience of God's relentless fidelity again and again — especially in the Passover from Egypt. This divine providence is recalled when Jesus feeds the needy multitudes in the Gospel of John. Passover arrives once again, and the people are hungry like the ancient Israelites on the wilderness journey. What is new is that in Jesus God not only provides for their needs, but He learns what it's like to have those human needs. He shares them too. He feeds them bread and fish; and even more, He hungers to provide them, and us, much more than just that kind of perishable food.

Our deepest need is for God. Like the multiplied bread, all earthly provisions ultimately fail, for we all finally die. Of course, our obligation to meet the needs of the poor is basic. But Christ promises to feed us with the one bread that never fails: God Himself. He is humanity's eternal food. If we eat this bread, we taste the faithfulness of God who answers all our needs, even when every earthly thing fails.

— Father John Muir

The Eyes of Faith

So they said to Jesus, "What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you performing?" (John 6:30)

- Exodus 16:2-4, 12-15 • Manna in the Desert
- Ephesians 4:17, 20-24 • Renewal in Christ
- John 6:24-35 • Discourse on the Bread of Life

- Adults: When has your faith helped you believe without "seeing signs" from God?
- Kids: Who helps you believe in things you cannot see?

Holy Spirit Family of Parishes-

July 28, 2024

The Dayton Catholic Women's Club was established in 1923 for the purpose of uniting all Catholic women into one club in order to promote a spirit of unity and cooperation among Catholic women of Dayton and the surrounding area. Over the past 100 years, thousands of faith-filled women have served the Dayton community by following the mission of the club. Today our purpose remains much the same as we gather in activities that support charitable giving, spiritual and educational development and community service. If you are interested in finding out more about the Dayton Catholic Women's Club join us at an informational session on Monday August 12th at 6:30 pm at Marion's Pizza on Shroyer Rd. To RSVP or if you have questions call Lisa Scherbauer 937-657-1029.

Widowed recently or years ago? Interested in meeting new friends? Why not check out Naim, a social & religious-based organization for widowed Catholics? The next meeting is Monday, August 12, at 1 PM in Friendship Hall at St. Francis of Assisi, 6245 Wilmington Pike, followed by cards. On Sunday, August 18, Naim will attend the 10:30 AM Mass at St. Henry, 6696 Springboro Pike followed by Brunch at the Marion's Piazza, 8991 Kingsridge Drive. Cards will follow. Contact Jim King, at 937-901-2849 to find out how YOU can learn more about Naim.
